

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

SETTERS IN TRIALS AT MEDFORD, N. J. One of the events in the annual classic held by the English Setter Club of America. Miss Alberta M. Radcliffe (right) was an interested spectator. Her field glasses were ready for service.

MISS HELEN RUCKERT, widely known as a figure skater. She was seen often in skating events throughout the West during the winter.

NEW ARRIVAL AT ZOO. It's of the bearcat family. The animal is being greeted by John Sturgis and C. Emerson Brown, superintendent of the Zoo.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON ON BROAD STREET. Miss Margaret D. De Fahr (left) wearing a fringed cape. Miss Florence Haggarty took off her hat just before the camera caught her.

LILLIAN MARGOLI, guardian of good health, at health show given by Blaine School pupils.

"DUKE" WANSBOROUGH. He's a member of the Oxford-Cambridge lacrosse team, now in Philadelphia. The "Duke" plays the in home position.

QUEEN OF FLORIDA'S WEST COAST. Miss Polly Barton won title at Florida carnival. Robert W. Maxwell was one of the judges.

LOOK at Wm. Johnson of Penn's 1923 class, in his knickers.

"GENERAL" JACOB COXEY, still asking Congress to pass a bill to help the idle.

HEALED BOY AND HAPPY MOTHER. Louis Joseph, 742 Snyder avenue, was assisted in his recovery by Dr. Lorenz of Austria.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FIFTY YEARS ON THIS JOB. Such is the record of William F. Glocker, Audubon, New Jersey, who operates a metal spinner in the factory of William Boeckel & Co., 516 Vine street.

A HEALTH FAIRY. Adeline Brinckback danced in play at Blaine School, Thirtieth and Norris streets.

GIRL MINSTRELS OF POST No. 50 and their coach, American Legion, as Linrick jury. Sitting (left to right) Jeanette Dix, Marie Baxter, A. C. Betus, coach, Rae Ruvinsky and Anna Fitzsimmons. Top row, A. Edmonds, Claire Martin, Fanny Goldscheider, Esther Shor, Nan Faulkner and Gertrude Martin.

MRS. ULYSSES S. GRANT, Jr. Wife of the great general's second son, will take part in Grant's centenary celebration on April 27.

PAYING TELLER. Joseph W. Budka, of the Richmond Trust Company. He lives at 3023 Gaul street. His hobbies are baseball and swimming.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS